Bulletin: No. 2007-19

Subject: First Aid/CPR Course (CD-ROM) Out of Date

The curriculum of the First Aid/CPR Course for law enforcement is out of date. Thus, POST no longer distributes this CD-ROM course and has not accepted Course Rosters for this course since October 1, 2006. All other CD-ROM courses are still active and Continuing Professional Training credit is available for successful completion.

POST is currently updating the contents of the First Aid/CPR Course and estimates the updated version will be available online through the POST Learning Portal in spring 2008. When the updates are completed, an announcement of availability will appear on the POST website, and POST will send email notifications to Learning Portal users.

You may direct your questions about the Multimedia First Aid/CD-ROM Course to the Learning Technology Resource Center (LTRC) at 1.877.ASK.LTRC or by email at Askltrc@post.ca.gov. Questions regarding the online version of First Aid/CPR can be directed to Sven Blomberg at 916.227.4547 or by email at sven.blomberg@post.ca.gov.
